

Grow your career with FeneTech in Northeast Ohio

You can work here. You can grow here. Connect here. Relax here. You can live here.

Where? Northeast Ohio. FeneTech headquarters is in suburban Aurora southeast of Cleveland. With more than 4 million residents, Northeast Ohio remains the 12th largest region in the United States. Whether you like urban bustle or country roads, fine dining or backyard barbecue, football or fishing, Broadway plays or bluegrass festivals, soccer or sushi, the region will surprise you with its diverse richness. Northeast Ohio boasts world class medical, arts and educational institutions, strong natural attractions, top-notch entertainment and many professional and collegiate sports teams. The area has extensive scenic parks, including the Cuyahoga Valley National Recreation Area, and is on Lake Erie, one of the largest fresh water lakes in the world. And you can afford to live here.

BUSINESS COMMUNITY

Cleveland business organizations serve as a model other regions copy. The Council of Smaller Enterprises has more than 15,000 members taking advantage of its educational, networking and benefits programs. The COSE Northeast Ohio Software Association-Core Technology Network has more than 900 member companies. Entrepreneurial groups in the regions include Jumpstart, which provides financial and management assistance, including venture capital investment, to high-potential early-stage companies. Jumpstart also delivers educational and networking opportunities.

PEOPLE FRIENDLY

The Cleveland area is home to more than 100 different ethnic groups, each bringing their customs, costumes, music, religion, art, food, language and more. Our community is richer for its ethnic diversity. Nearly everyone here is Midwestern friendly and knows how to seize the best of each season, even winter! You can walk or cross-country ski on a snowy trail in the Cleveland Metroparks, hit a comedy club downtown, go to the world-class Cleveland Art Museum or enjoy a meal prepared by one of Cleveland's internationally recognized chefs.

AFFORDABILITY & FAMILY FABULOUS

Northeast Ohio allows you to take advantage of superb cultural, educational, recreational and entertainment amenities at a cost of living well below that of other major metropolitan areas. Northeast Ohioans enjoy affordable housing, easily accessible roads and transportation services along with an unparalleled quality of life — great for families!
